

ONE-OF-A-KIND CARE

A world-class reputation for expert pediatric orthopedic care, Scottish Rite for Children is known for being a bright, child-friendly place that does not look, feel or smell like a health care institution. Every detail is designed specifically for kids. From gymnastics to drumming and everything in between, the children in Scottish Rite's care accomplish incredible things.

U.S. News & World Report ranked Scottish Rite for Children, in collaboration with Children's Medical Center Dallas and UT Southwestern Medical Center, as the No. 3 pediatric orthopedic program in the country in 2022. Since 2013, we have been ranked in the top five in the nation each year.

NRC Health honored Scottish Rite for Children with the 2022 Excellence in Patient Experience Award. For the sixth time, Scottish Rite received the highest patient satisfaction rating in NRC's nationwide pediatric category. NRC recognizes health care organizations for their commitment to enhancing care experiences for every patient.

A REMARKABLE MISSION 100 YEARS IN THE MAKING

For more than a century, Scottish Rite for Children has been dedicated to giving children back their childhood. By providing excellent patient care, conducting innovative research and educating medical professionals around the world, Scottish Rite for Children is a place like no other, brimming with hope and healing.

The institution is a world-renowned leader in the treatment of pediatric orthopedic conditions, such as scoliosis, clubfoot, hand differences, hip disorders, limb lengthening, sports injuries and fractures, as well as certain related arthritic and neurological disorders and learning disorders, such as dyslexia. Three locations — Dallas, Frisco and The Star in Frisco — serve the growing pediatric patient population.

Our organization provides treatment regardless of a family's ability to pay and accepts a variety of insurance providers, so any child may access the world's best orthopedic treatment.
